A Message from the Organizers

Dear Comedianentes:

We would like to thank you for your participation and contributions to our first Virtual AHCT symposium! In spite of the circumstances that have kept us from being together in person in El Paso or Almagro this year, we are delighted with the exceptional quality of talks, performances, and music that we are able to enjoy together this year.

We would also like to thank Ignacio García and the whole team of the Festival Internacional de Teatro Clásico de Almagro, for their collaboration and commitment to creating a strong link across the ocean. Likewise, we must recognize Lorenzo Papagallo for his support, organizing skills, and dedication to helping us get this off the ground. Thank you to the Board of the Association for giving us the go-ahead and letting our imaginations run wild with this initiative!

We are so appreciative of the artists who have dedicated their time and efforts towards creating these digital experiences: Sandra Arpa, Paula Rodríguez, Fernando Villa Proal, Carlos Herrera, Daniela Plaza, and Arthur Astier. We would also like to recognize the contributions of our invited speakers: Ainhoa Amestoy, Carlos Aladro, Antonio Algarra, Allan Flores, Carlota Gaviño, Iñigo Rodríguez-Claro, Julieta Soria, Carlos Tuñón, and José Carlos Cuevas.

As always, the symposium counts on the support of volunteers to help everything run smoothly. Although we do not have to sit at the registration table this year, we appreciate everyone who volunteered to moderate: Ana Méndez, Laura Ramiro Moreno, Melissa Figueroa, Lisette Balabarca, Joseph Pecorelli, Lorenzo Papagallo, and Susan Paun de García. Finally, we could not have done this without the support of our VP of Registration, Darci Strother, who worked tirelessly to keep us up to date on the list of participants and auditors.

This is certainly not a comprehensive list of everyone who has helped and supported us through this process, but anyone who was left off was not done so on purpose! Thank you all for your participation, and we hope to see you next year EN PERSONA!

Un abrazo fuerte, las organizadoras:

PROFESSIONAL ETHICS STATEMENT

The AHCT seeks to provide a conference environment in which diverse participants may learn, network and enjoy the company of colleagues in an environment of mutual human respect. We recognize a shared responsibility to create and maintain that environment for the benefit of all.

Speakers and moderators are asked to frame discussions as openly and inclusively as possible and to be aware of how language or images may be perceived by others. Critical examination of beliefs and viewpoints does not, by itself, constitute hostile conduct or harassment. Similarly, use of sexual imagery or language in the context of a professional discussion might not constitute hostile conduct or harassment. Participants may – and do – exercise their option to leave a session or a conversation.

The AHCT Symposium is dedicated to providing a harassment-free conference experience for everyone, regardless of academic rank, national origin, gender, gender identity and expression, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, race, age or religion. We do not tolerate harassment of conference participants in any form.

Harassment includes, but is not limited to:
● Harassment based on race, religion, language, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, disability, appearance, or other group status.
● Deliberate intimidation (including yelling at or threatening speakers), stalking, or following
● Harassing photography or recording
● Sustained disruption of talks or other events
● Inappropriate physical contact
● Unwelcome sexual attention
● Advocating for, or encouraging, any of the above behaviors

Participants asked to stop any harassing behavior are expected to comply immediately.

If a participant engages in harassing behavior, event organizers retain the right to take any actions to keep the event a welcoming environment for all participants. This includes warning the offender or expulsion from the conference with no refund.

Event organizers may take action to redress anything designed to, or with the clear impact of, disrupting the event or making the environment hostile for any participants.

We expect all participants to respect this policy at all event venues and event-related social activities. We encourage people to abide by these guidelines outside event activities as well.
If someone makes you or anyone else feel unsafe or unwelcome, please report it as soon as possible to one of the Ombuds listed in the AHCT Symposium Resource Guide included in your conference folder. Ombuds can also be identified by the black “Liaison” ribbon attached to their name badges. Harassment and other code of conduct violations reduce the value of our event for everyone.*
